An Announcement From Madrid that Doesn't Seem to be Warranted by the Facts.

"AWAITING THE UNITED STATES' REPLY."

As the Case Now Stands We Are Awaiting Spain's Reply to Our Statement of Terms-If She Sent It M. Cambon Must Have Forgotton to Deliver it to the President.

A Singular Statement.

PARIS, Aug. 3 .-- The Madrid correpondent of the Temps telegraphs saying that if the definite reply of the United States on the peace proposals arrives to-day the Spanish cabinet will meet this evening and officially except the terms. The cabinet ministers, the correspondent adds, believed that the agreement would be accepted by the country without opposition, and the government will not summon the cortes before the autumn.

The President Has Not Received Spain's

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.-At 3 p. m. the ber 1. positive statement was authorized that the Spanish reply to the American peace demands had not been received at the French embassy. There have been a considerable number of communications received from the Spanish government bearing on peace negotiations, but nothing in the sense of a decisive reply to be communicated to the president, and no conference with the president has yet been arranged for by M. Cambon. The statement that Spain was expecting a response from the United States, therefore, is at least premature.

Madrid Newspapers Attacking Sagasta Paris, Aug. 3.-The Madrid correspondent of the Temps says the newsand his colleagues. They assert that LW. WAKELEY. GEN'L PASS'HAGT., ST. LOUIS. W. the premier opened negotiations with Senor Pidal, president of the Spanish chamber of deputies, with the view of returning the conservatives to power as soon as peace is arranged, believing that the conservatives are more mpetent to reorganize the country. Senor Sagasta's partisans deny this.

ments that no manu all proportion in vials were in tu for several weeks or months are found to be practically as fresh and as efficacious as ever.

Acting upon these suggestions, and noting particularly the unimpaired prosperity of great newspapers now sold for a cent instead of the old rate of five times that amount, and the general tendency in all directions toward low rates and increased sales, the company have entered upon the experiment of putting up Ripans Tabules in pasteboard cartons, which they will offer to the trade upon terms which will permit of a package being sold by-the drugglat or storekeeper at a price lower than ever before adopted for a proprietary medicine—FIVE CERTS—ten tabules, or doses, for one-half a cent each.

The company will not discontinue the manufacture and sale in the form with which the people have learned to know and value the Ripans Tabules, but will offer the cheaper sort—experimentally—for the benefit of such as may desire them. It should be plainly understood that the quality of the medicine is identical in both sorts, the only difference being in the form and comparative cost of packing or putting up. The five-cent packages are not yet to be had of all dealers, although it is probable that almost any drugglat will obtain a supply when requested by a customer to do so; but in any case a single carton, containing ten tabules, will be sent, postage paid, to any address for five cents in stamps, forwarded to the Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce St., New York. Until the goods are thoroughly introduced to the trade, agents and peddlers will be supplied at a price which will allow them a fair margin of profit, viz.: I dozen cartons for 40 cents.

LESSONIVI, THIRD QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, AUG. 7.

Fext of the Lesson, II Kings ii, 6-15. Memory Verses, 11-14 - Golden Text,

6. "And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here, for the Lord hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on." The man who had wanted to die was not going to who had wanted to die was not going to die, but was going to be taken by a whirlwind up to heaven (verse 1). He had said to Elisha both at Gligal and at Bothel, "Tarry here, I pray thee," but in each case Elisha had with the same words refused to leave him. They make us think of the words of Ruth to Naomi and of Ittai to David, in Ruth i, 16, 17, and II Sam. xv, 21, and of the advice of Barnahas to the 21, and of the advice of Barnabas to the believers at Antioch, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord (Acts xi, 23). Our eternal safety depends upon the faithfulness of the Lord Jesus and His cleaving unto us, as it is written in Gen. ii, 24—the man shall cleave unto his wife—and in Eph. v, 31, 32, Paul says he speaks concerning Christ and the church. As to His faithfulness see such passages as I Cor. i, 9; x, 13; I Thess. v, prophets went and stood to view afar off, and they two stood by Jordan." Gilgal, Bethel, Jericho and Jordan are suggestive of stages in Christian experience, but there is no place where we should ever be con-tent to stop. We must ever be going and growing (II Sam. v, 10, margin). Gilgal suggests salvation, the reproach rolled away and the passover kept (Joshua v, 9, 10); Bethel reminds us of visions of glory (Gen. xxviii, 19); Jericho had a pleasant situation (verse 19), but in none of these may we rest as a matter of attainment.

8. "And Elijah took his mantle and wrapped it together and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground." Thus for these two nen God did what He had done before for millions when He took the whole nation across this river on dry land. Jordan cannot be suggestive of literal death, nor Canaan of heaven, for when Israel crossed Jordan into Canaan it was to encounter many enemies and do much fighting. Jordan, which means river of judgment, seems rather suggestive of that judgment of self which henceforth practices constant de-nial of self that the life of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

made manifest in our mortal flesh.

9. "And it came to pass when they were gone over that Elijah said unto Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee before I be taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me." The greatest thing for a redeemed soul is to be filled with the spirit of God for His service; dead with Christ, risen with Christ, one with Him for whatever He may please of service, if for whatever He may please of service, if only we can be a comfort to Him, a vessel meet for His use.

10. "And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing. Nevertheless if thou see me when I am taken from thee it shall be so." unto thee, but if not it shall not be so."
To be filled with the Spirit means readiness for whatsoever God may appoint that He may be glorified. According to the story of the Acts of the Apostles, it might nean such service as was endured or renlered by any of the apostles or deacons; it might mean serving tables or preaching e gospel, winning souls or enduring imisonment, scourging or death; it might can to be used in a great revival or sent a desert place to reach one person. To be filled with the Spirit means grace to say under all circumstances, "My Jesus, as Thou wilt," or, "Yes, my Father, this is so, because that Thou hast found it good" (Math. xi. 26)

11. "And it came to pass as they still went on and talked that behold there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder, and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.' thing for the believer day by day that he still goes on growing in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour (II not consider the rights of God

Pet. iii, 18).
12. "And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof! And he saw did not know what to do with it, did him no more, and he took hold of his own | not inquire, "What would God have clothes and rent them in two pieces." Not for a moment did he take his eyes off him, and he was rewarded by seeing him taken. but only "What shall I do?" and the and he was rewarded by seeing fill tures.

The one great difficulty with believers is that we allow so many things to take our eyes off the Lord, yet we know that our eyes off the Lord, yet we know that our barns and build greater, and there will barns and build greater. instructions are to run with patience, looking unto Jesus, and to consider Him lest we be weary (Heb. xii, 2, 3). There is no to use for God or humanity, but for his other way of rest. Although Elisha saw own ease for many years. That which him no more for the present, he knew bet- leads us to disregard God and to fail to ter than to imagine that he was on any of consider our fellow men is a great and jah that fell from him and went back and gerous evils to which humanity is heir.

He knew that he was as really in heaven. 13. "He took up also the mantle of Elistood by the bank of Jordan." We are instructed to put on the Lord Jesus and casily seen and its dangers realized. It make no provision for the flesh to fulfill the lusts thereof (Rom. xiii, 14), to put on the new man, which after God is created in fact, while its prisoners many never in righteousness and true holiness (Eph. iv, 24). We who receive the Lord Jesus and are saved by Him and delight to say equal delight in saying Elisha (my God is Saviour), and in making it manifest that race. Man naturally desires that which He does save us from ourselves and from is of value and attractiveness to him, "And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and smote the waters and said, Where is the Lord God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither, and Elisha law of man. It is often called by other went over." Thus the Lord did for one names, and applauded by the world person what He had done for two and rather than condemned by it. But it is what He had done for millions, even for all Israel. Let us learn to cry with Asa, looks at the heart and not on the out-"Lord, it is nothing with Thee to help, whether with many or with them that have no power! Help us, O Lord, our name we go against this multitude" (II Chron. xiv. 11).

15. "And when the sons of the prophets, which were to view at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground be-fore him." When the rulers saw the boldus, then God will be glorified in us as He was in Paul (Gal. i, 24). It will largely depend upon the sincerity and earnestness II Chron. xvi, 9; Jer. xxix, 18.
